POUND GULLTY OF DECETION—HE REFUSES TO ACCEPT THE DECISION.

A council composed of delegates from the chaches of the Southern New-York Baptist Association to consider the Tottenville Church trouble, held an adjourned meeting in Caivary Baptist Church, in West Fifty-seventh-st., yesterday aftermoot, the Rev. Dr. Armitage acting as Moderator. He stated that the business first in order was the consideration of the report of the committee of five appointed at the last meeting to go to Tottenville to examine additional witnesses. The committee was composed of the Rev. Messrs. Pogson, Moore and Bourne, and Messrs. Williams and Fish, laymen. The report was read by the Rev. Halsey Moore, clerk of the council. The parties to the controversy were requested to withdraw while the report was being considered, and the Kev. Mr. Hott and his followers on the one side, and Deacon John Turner and his friends on the other, retired.

The report was read, discussed, amended and adopted with but one dissenting vote. It declared that both the church officers and the former pastor had been guilty of reprehensible conduct, the latter especially so. It set forth that when Mr. Bott came to the church he wrongfully withfield important facts concerning his divorce from his first wife and his marriage to his present one, and that he was guilty of deception; also that, though he claimed to be now the rightful pastor of the church, he was not its pastor, and that he should withdraw. The report recommended that all the members of the church come together in a spirit of mutual forgiveness, each faction confessing any wrong which it might have committed, and that Mr. Bott confess his faults, whereupon the church was advised to grant him a letter of dismission.

Then those in waiting and a few spectators, among whom was General Conway, of Brooklyn, who was the founder of the Tottenville church, were allowed to re-enter. Dr. Armitage stated what had occurred, and the findings of the body were read by the clerk. Dr. Armitage that hurned to the repr ACCEPT THE DECISION.

The Remarkably Prosperious Career of The New-York Company.

James Yalden, the expert accountant, presented a lot of facts and figures to the Senate Gas Committee yesterday showing what a big "bonanza" the New-York Gaslight Company had found. He said that the company started in the year 1823 with a capital of $1,000.000 and of this sum $200.000 was paid in shortly afterward. The cash capital was subscribed by the stockholders. The surphing profits were nominally made up by appreciation in the value of real estate, but the basis on which it was increased could not be ascertained. On the amount invested dividends aggregating $11,714,078 50 were paid up to the year 1871. From 1871 to 1884 the New-York Company and $3,520,000 to its stockholders in dividends, and an additional dividend aggregating $40,000 was paid out of the ass ts of the company after consolidation. The stock and assets of the New-York Company were given to the Consolidated Company in exchange for $7,000,000 of new stock. Altogether the stockholders of the New-York Company received from their original investment of $750,000 cash and stock benefits amounting to $22,171,336 63. This year the stockholders of the New-York Company received in dividends $529,200, equal to 7 per cent on its nominal consolidated capital of $7,000,000, but equivalent to $702 per cent on its actual cash sepital.

Daniel Palmer, cashier of the City Bank, testified that the bank had from time to time made call loans to the Consolidated Company. There was a cur

Mr. Smith said that the company had notes outstanding amounting to $600,000, bearing interest at 4 per cent, held by the City Bank and decounted about three days ago. LICENSING DISREPUTABLE RESORTS.

LICENSING DISREPUTABLE RESORTS.

John N. Beckley, City Attorney of Bochester, who under appointment of Governor Hill is taking testimony regarding the charges brought by Sayor Grace against the Excise Commissioners, sat all day yesterday in one of the parlors of the Glisey House listening to the evidence of Commissioner Morris. The prosecution was represented by Francis M. Scott, assisted by G. M. Orden. Filiot Sandford appeared for the Excise Board, but R. S. Newcombe, Commissioner Michiell's comusel, conducted the cross-examination and did most of the objecting. Robert E. Deyo was also present as counsel for Commissioner Morris. The special subject of inquiry was the second of the three charges preferred against the members of the Excise Board, but R. S. Orden, Stoner Morris, who refused to sign these licenses, was the only important witness examined.

Mr. Scott opened the session by nutting in evidence applications for licease which had been filed during the last eighteen months by the proprietors of thirden well-known discipulable bar-rooms, and which had all been granted by the votes of Commissioners Haughten and Michell, notwithstanding the protest of Commissioner Morris. Among the places thus licensed were "Tom" Gould's, the Haymarket, the Cremorne, and the Windsor Gardens, Commissioner Morris is estified that he was in the habit of making certain indurements upon the applications for hierase which came before the board. On looking over the various applications which had been put in evidence, he found that in the case of most of them the indorsements were dated on days prior to the granting of the fleenses, which fact preves that Commissioner Morris's protests must have come to the notice of the other commissioner Morris told what efforts he had made to investigate personally the character of the various places for which licenses were asked. It many cases he had found them to be frequented by disreputable women. In other cases he found gambing-roems maintained in the same house. In other cases he made no other cases he made no personal investigation.

other cases he made no personal investigation, but based his protest upon the unfavorable report of the inspectors and the police captains. In spite of his protests these places had all been licensed.

Mr. Newcombe on cross-examination put in evidence a letter written to the Excise Board by Senator Gibbs, recommending the heensing of "Tom" Gould's place, and also a long petition with nearly 200 names recoived by the Board, praying for the license of the same place. The investigation will be continued to-day.

FOR HELPING A MURDLERER TO ESCAPE.

James McShane, who was at the ball of the Lanwood Club, at the Grand Opera House, on New Year's eve, 1882, is in trouble, as several others of that company have been. James A. Brown, one of the members of the club, quarrelled with the Ozle brothers about some money that had been given to the club, and Brown was stabbed with a physician's lance and died. The Coroner's jury implicated Samuel Ogle, and he was arrested, but sufficient evidence could not be found against him and he was discharged. Meanwhile McShane, it is said, had talked with some of the detectives and had given information against George Ogle, who is now under arrest for the murder. He said that Rogers and Hopper, two men who were present, could also give information against George Ogle. When the detectives endeavored to arrest George Ogle it was found that he had just left the city, and information was obtained that led the detectives to believe that McShane gave the information and he afterward admitted FOR HELPING A MURDERER TO ESCAPE. gave the information and he afterward admitted it, saying that he did not want. There has been a rumor afloat for several weeks that Governor Abbett, of New-Jersey, was sufering from serious brain trouble, and that the disease had affected his mind so as to incapacitate him from attending to his offical duties. Mr. Fuier, the law partner of Governor Abbett, said to a Tribunk reporter yesterday; "All that there is in the rumor is this—the Governor has been working hard during the last year, at his business, and the time that he might have had to recuperate from his labor has been given to the performance of his duries at Trenton. He also took an active part in the last political caupaign, and the result was that from the great number of things that were pressing upon his attention, and requiring prompt and energetly action, his physical system was worn out and needed a rest, which he could not find time to take. While in this low state of health he canght a heavy cold in the head, and an abscess was developed internally in one of his cars. This was about three weeks ago, and for a week he did not come to his office here or attend to any public business. He came to New York every day, however, and visited a prominent ear specialist's office for treatment. The abscess, though exceedingly paningli, was never considered serious, as it broke externally and was not compileated with any other disease. He has been at his office hard at work every day for the last two weeks, except when attending to his duties at Treaton, and his mental powers are as strong and vigorous as they ever were." GOV. Christ must be his central orbit, or he will be subjected to influences that will gradually draw him further away toward chaos. "How is it with you all to-night," he asked, "are you slipping, drifting away? SMALLPOX ON LONG ISLAND.

Smallpox has broken out again in Long Island
City, and fears are entertained that it may become an epidemic. Three new cases were found yesterday in the most densely populated part of the city. The Board of Health has taken no action in the case, and the patients were not removed. Commissioner O'Harran said that the Board had not been informed of the new cases. The disease first appeared about two weeks ago in the family of James F. Lynn, a Vernon-ave, grocer. His youngest child died and two others recovered. Another victim was John Hearns, a plumber, who caught the disease while fixing a gaspipe in the house. Yesterday a baby and an adult were taken down with it in the family of Edward Keoner, in a house adjoining Flynn's. The other new case is in the family of James Dunn, in Tenthest, several other cases are reported. Dr. Burnett said that there are five other children in the Kepner house who have not been vaccinated. Dr. Denier said that he vaccinated the child about a week ago that was taken ill yesterday. SMALLPOX ON LONG ISLAND.

vaccinated the child about a week ago that was taken ill yesterday.

The question of vaccination threatens to cause much trouble at Orster Bay. Two weeks ago the town officers issued an order to compel the vaccination of all children attending public schools, instructing teachers to refuse admission to any children who were not vaccinated within ten days. Many parents refused to have their children vaccinated, and sent them to school without paying any beed to the order. In Bayville many of the citizens are opposed to vaccination, and they applied to the School Commissioner for his opinion. After the children had been sent home by the teachers the Commissioner decided that the town authorities had no right to order the refusal of educational facilities to any person, basing his action on a decision of State Superintendent Ruggles. The teachers are now acting under this decision.

How Women Differ from Men.

At least three men on the average jury are bound to disagree with the rest just to show that they've got minds of their own but there is no disagreement among the women as to the merits of Dr. Pierce's "Fayorite Prescription." It transforms the pale, hag gard, dispirited woman into one of sparking health, and the ringing faugh again "reigns supreme" in the happy household. How Women Differ from Men.
